

Which Elvis ?

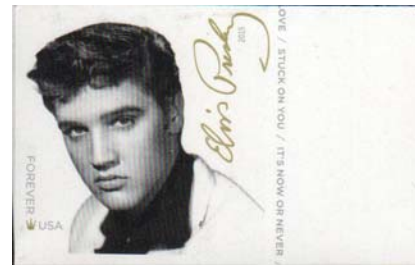

In 1992, Americans were asked to vote!

Should the upcoming Elvis Presley stamp feature a “young” or an “old” Elvis?

The ballot card on the left was distributed at post offices around the country and also in the April 13, 1992 edition of “People” magazine.

The choice was obvious: 75% of voters choose the stamp shown above, issued in 1993.

In 2015, the USPS issued another Elvis stamp, with an even “younger” Elvis. Shown is an imperforate single from the press sheet.

Elvis has been featured on many countries' stamps, shown here as both a younger and an older Elvis, but there were no votes.

Color Proofs →

