

FLOWERS

Flowers as we all know is a necessity in every walk of life. Be it to adorn our head, express love, grief, friendship, thanksgiving etc. It is also an essential for scents, perfumes, food, medicine, beauty products etc. It is infact a multifaceted need in our nature. Not only that it is also a need for insects and other creatures. Life without colour would be dark and so life without these colourful flowers in our nature would also be dark. To show case the beauty of these multifaceted hues is a one page tribute to them.
