

VANDA MISS JOAQUIM

Vanda Miss Joaquim is National Flower of Singapore chosen in 15 April 1981 a hybrid between Vanda hookeriana and Vanda teres. The first director of the Singapore Botanical Gardens Mr H.N. Ridley in 1893 named the orchid in honour of a Singaporean born Armenian descent called Miss Agnes Joaquim Horticulturist, first woman in the world to breed an orchid. Orchids are queen of flower are endangered and has to be conserved.

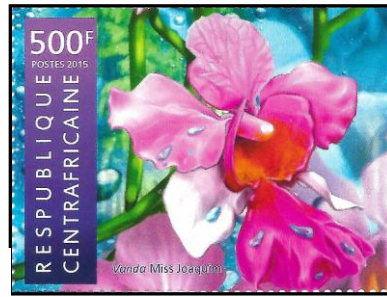

Vanda Miss Joaquim
1963 First Stamp
Singapore released

Vanda Miss
Joaquim
2011

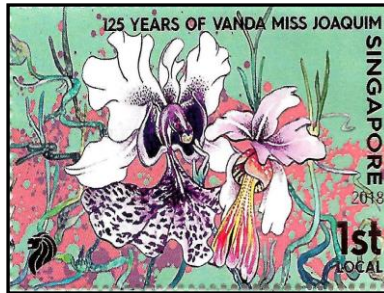

Vanda Miss Joaquim
1995

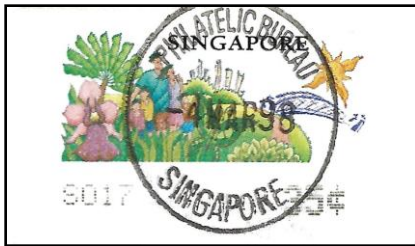

Vanda Miss Joaquim
2015 Republic
Central Africa

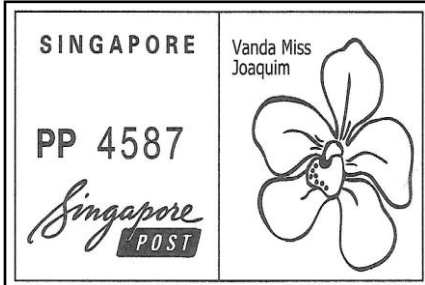

Vanda Miss Joaquim 2016
Pakistan and Singapore joint issue

Vanda Miss
Joaquim
Singapore Local 2018

Different ATM Stamp of Vanda Miss Joaquim

Franking by Singapore Post on envelope with Orchid image of Vanda Miss Joaquim

125 years commemoration of creation of orchid hybrid Vanda Miss Joaquim National flower of Singapore 2018 MS shows Miss Agnes Joaquim and Orchid Vanda Miss Joaouim

Singapore Botanical Garden UNESCO World Heritage Site: "Vanda Miss Joaquim" in National Orchid Garden on se-tenant.
Since 1859 orchids have been closely associated with the Garden. Orchid breeding programme which began in 1928