

INDIAN PHILATELY AND POSTAL SYSTEM WITH STAMPS

Ananya Bhattacharjee

Indian postal system is one of the largest network in the world with 1.5 lakh post offices across the nation. With a mixed geographical distribution , multiple transport system has been used to carry mails. The mail system got flourished during the British rule and to commemorate this postal journey, multiple stamps have been issued . With flourished postal system, there has been a growing network of philatelist across the country and a stamp has been issued for Indian philatelists.

