

The Garfield Connection

by Marci Jarvis ~ catmews1@yahoo.com

The Garfield comic strip character was indirectly named for President Garfield.

President James A. Garfield (1831-1881) was born in Ohio.

6¢ President Garfield Intaglio Coil Stamp with a 1934 Circular Date Stamp, Garfield, Ohio

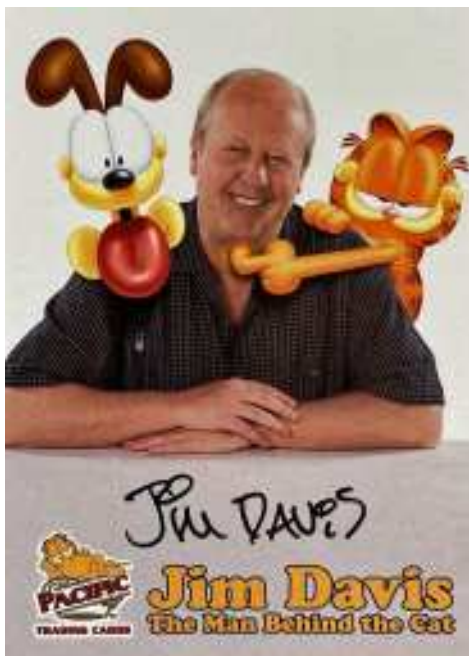

Maximum Card with pictorial postmark; reduced 50%

Cartoonist, Jim Davis, named his feline character Garfield, after his grandfather who was named for the president.

Garfield can be moody and difficult at times, like Davis' curmudgeonly Grandfather James A. Garfield Davis.

Grandfather & Garfield were lovable—some of the time!
