

Lighthouses are termed differently in different languages across the World.

In Estonia, I'm known as Tuletorn.

In Lithuania, they call me švyturys.

In Poland, lighthouse is termed as Latarnia morska.

In Latvia, bāka is my name.

In Russia, I was referred as Маяк.

In Spanish, the official language of Argentina, I was Faro.

In Germany, I'm called as Leuchtturm.

In Bulgaria, I was termed as фар.