

TRADITIONAL PERUVIAN CLOTHING

Cesar Perez Dioses

THE TYPICAL COSTUMES ARE THE CLOTHES THAT REPRESENT THE CULTURAL IDENTITY OF EACH ONE OF THE REGIONS OF PERU

IN CUZCO, THE OLDER MEN ARE STILL FAITHFUL TO THEIR TRADITIONS AND CULTURE, FOR WHICH THEY ARE OFTEN SEEN WEARING PONCHOS, CHULLOS, AND KNITTED PANTS AMONG OTHER TRADITIONAL PERUVIAN CLOTHING.

IN THE HIGH PERUVIAN ANDES, EACH PEOPLE HAS A UNIQUE STYLE OF DRESS THAT IDENTIFIES EACH REGION.

THE PEOPLE OF THE ANDES DRESS IN BRIGHT AND COLORFUL TRADITIONAL ANDEAN CLOTHING AND HATS OF VIBRANT COLORS.

ON THE COAST, THEIR PONCHOS AND SKIRTS ARE MADE OF COTTON.

THESE COSTUMES USUALLY WEAR STRAW HATS TO PROTECT THEMSELVES FROM THE SUN.
