

Halloween!

Skeletons rattle and ghost say Boo, hope tonight is filled with lots of fun for you!

In the United States Halloween is celebrated October 31st of each year. Traditions and symbols vary by family and family origins. Some images are universal. Witches, jack-o-lanterns, owls and ghost are favorite decorations for the holiday. It is thought that the giving of candy and sugary treats was an advertising promotion of the candy manufacturers.

Grinning Jack-o-Lantern

Hooty Owl

Friendly Ghost

Haunted House

Scary Witch

Human Skull

Trick-or-Treat Procession – Scary Costumes

Vampire Bat

Jean C. Stout