

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITES IN INDIA

Ankita Chatterjee, PhD Scholar

India is home to 38 World Heritage Sites, making India rank the 6th country in UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The miniature sheet published in the year 2020 shows vibrant pictures of the adorable wildlife found in the major wildlife sanctuaries of India. The miniature sheet of stamps consists denominations of Rs.5 and Rs.12. The stamps portray a few wildlife sanctuaries namely, Manas Wildlife Sanctuary, the Great Himalayan National Park, Nanda Devi Biosphere Reserve and the Western Ghats. The miniature stamp sheet shows the various rare and endangered wildlife species such as the Golden Langur, Snow Leopard, Western Tragopan, Greater Blue Sheep, Valley of Flowers, Himalayan Brown Bear, Lightmatter Lion-Tailed Macaque, Nilgiri Marten, and Nilgiri Tahr.

- Right (large image) : The commemorative miniature sheet showing the UNESCO World Heritage Sites
- Middle : The commemorative stamp of the denomination Rs 12 showing Nanda Devi and Valley of Flowers National Parks
- Right Row (from Left to Right) : The commemorative stamps of denomination Rs.5 showing the Great Himalayan National Park and Manas Wildlife Sanctuary along with the commemorative stamps of denomination of Rs.12 showing Nanda Devi National Park and Western Ghats

Exhibitor Contact :
monkeybusiness@gmail.com