

COIMBRA, CITY OF KNOWLEDGE

Coimbra is a portuguese city in the centre of the country.

His University, with more than 700 years, and the second oldest university in Europe, has much prestige in the world in several areas.

Several locations

Via Latina and Cabra Tower

One of the most beautiful libraries in the world: Biblioteca Joanina

Laboratorio Quimico (Chemistry lab)

Science Museum

The University has 8 main areas with faculties: Arts and Humanities, Pharmacy, Science and Technology, Medicine, Psychology and Educational Sciences, Economy, Law, and Sports Sciences and Physical Education

Secção Filatélica da Associação Académica de Coimbra, filatelica@academica.pt
 Portugal

His students have several traditions, one of them called "Queima das Fitas" has celebrations with culture, music and sport activities.

The city had muslim and roman occupation and has several influences from different nations and people.

