BEAUTIFUL INDIA

(By K.Dinakar Rao)

India is the most populous country in the world with around 143 crores of people. India is a democratic country with 29 states and 9 territories. The flora, fauna, environment is so beautiful one cannot describe in words. We got our independence from the British in 1947. India celebrates its Independence Day on August 15th. The Forts, Heritage monuments, places of worship, the Western Ghats etc play a major role in attracting foreign tourist till date. The Beaches are yet another attraction. Philately has helped to a vast extent in knowing the past as well as the present glory of India. India is a beautiful country spreading from Himalayas in the North to Kanyakumari in the South and from Arunachal Pradesh in the East to Gujarat in the West too. The vibrant Colours of India adds and spreads fragrance to the Nation.
