75 years of
The United Nations : The Global Panchayat
by Neeraj Lihala, India

The United Nations (UN) is an international organization whose stated purposes are to maintain international peace and security, develop friendly relations among various nations, achieve international cooperation, and they also serve as a centre for harmonizing the actions of various nations. It was established after the horrors of the Second World War in the year 1945 on 26th June. In the year 2020 the UN celebrated its 75 years of being in existence, and lot of countries issued stamps to commemorate this event .Some of them are as follows:

India

Germany

Türkiye

Italy

Austria

Serbia

Portugal

Russia

Slovakia

Belgium

Bulgaria

Belarus

Singapore

Pakistan